The Diversity, Recruitment, and Employee Services Division, created within the Office of Human Resources in Office of Administration and Resources Management in June 2016, has primary responsibility for the EPA's diversity and recruitment efforts and employee services. Within DRES, the Diversity and Recruitment Branch provides strategic leadership in furthering the EPA's commitment to building a high performing organization that draws on the talents, experience, and perspectives from all segments of society and leads the Agency's diversity, inclusion, and recruitment efforts.

DRES is pleased to host this intranet site as a vehicle for sharing information about the Agency's continuing efforts to strengthen diversity, inclusion, and recruitment at the EPA, as well as the management of employee services. The site will serve as a "one-stop-shop" of resources, tools, and up-to-date information relating to EPA's special emphasis and diversity employment programs, collaborations, recruitment activities, and will be updated on a continuing basis, as we strive to keep you abreast of any developments and your ongoing role in enhancing the Agency's diversity, recruitment, and employee services information. DRES looks forward to assisting the Agency in achieving its mission and working with our stakeholders, together as One EPA.
